

ANAT PARNASS

Telling Life Stories: Gender and Empowerment in Contemporary Women's Photography

2018. 11.15 Thu.

10:40am - 12:10pm

Speaker: Anat Parnass
Place: Waseda University
Toyama Campus
Building 36, Room 582
1-24-1 Toyama, Shinjuku-ku
Tokyo, 162-8644

Moderator: Hitomi Yoshio

Language: English

Q&A: English/Japanese

Free and Open to the Public

Born in Tel Aviv in 1974. Currently living in Tokyo. After graduating from Tel Aviv University with a BA in Japanese studies, Anat continued her studies in photography at an Art school, Camera Obscura. She relocated to Japan in April 2006 after receiving the MEXT scholarship from the Japanese Ministry of Education, and in 2013 completed her PhD at Japan University College of Art in contemporary women's photography.

Major shows include a group exhibition (2008, FOIL GALLERY), "HANABI" (2009, FOIL GALLERY), "Holga De Shinjuku" (2010, Stork Gallery), "Far Away From (Here)" (2011, FOIL GALLERY), "Stillness of Night" (2013, Shinjuku Nikon Salon), "Stillness of Night" (2014, NIKON Gallery, Osaka), LAUNCHPAD gallery solo exhibition (2017, Yokohama), and the 5th Biennial of Fine Art & Documentary Photography (2018, Barcelona).

主催: 早稲田大学 文化構想学部 多元文化論系

共催: 総合人文科学研究センター「境界の溶解と再編をめぐる学際的研究」部門

お問い合わせ先: 多元文化論系 03-5286-2979

Poster design by Risa Tomioka